Great Chefs will once again benefit Hayground School

Jul 28, 09 12:01 PM

At last year's Great Chefs event.

The 2009 Great Chef's Dinner, a benefit for Hayground School's Jeff's Kitchen and The Jeff Salaway Scholarship Fund, will be held at Hayground School on Mitchell Lane in Bridgehampton on Sunday, August 9, from 5 to 9 p.m.

The event will bring together top culinary names of the East End to celebrate and honor the legacy of Jeff Salaway, a restaurateur and one of Hayground School's cofounders. The culinary affair, hosted by Toni Ross of Nick & Toni's and Jon Snow, artist and director of Hayground Camp, will feature a cocktail party with hors d'oeuvres from top East End chefs, fine wine and a silent auction from 5 to 7 p.m.

Following the cocktail party, a four-course dinner will be served in Jeff's Kitchen from 7 to 9 p.m., headlined by noted toque Eric Ripert of Le Bernardin. Chef Ripert will be teamed with Joseph Realmuto of Nick & Toni's, Christian Mir of Stone Creek Inn and Miche Bacher of Sacred Sweets.

The seated dinner will include wine pairings from Long Island's Bedell Cellars and a live musical performance.

Tickets are $125 for the cocktail party or $500 for the cocktail party and dinner. Tickets are $35 for children.

For more information, call (631) 537-7068 or visit www.greatchefs-dinner.com.

Hayground School's mission is to provide an open community school, where unproductive conventions are replaced with new ways of teaching and learning. The school was founded on the conviction that all children can and should live a life of the mind, be serious and passionate readers, engage in serious discourse, and work and study in an environment where art is at the center, not the periphery, of life.
